Featured Performers

The Sacramento Capitolaire Chorus and Quartets have been a proud Sacramento institution since 1946. Our tagline is "Where Singing Happens! An apt description, since our members experience a multi generation, multi genre spectrum of Men's Barbershop-style a cappella ensemble singing (chorus, quartets, octets), music theory and voice improvement sessions, and, of course, a liberal dose of informal singing and social interaction. Our aim is to sing well, sing often, delight our audiences and members, and most of all, have fun!

We meet at 7:00 pm each Tuesday evening at Pilgrim Hall, 890 Morse Ave, Sacramento. We're always looking for men who like to sing to join us and experience the sheer joy of four-part harmony!

The Ambassadors have been entertaining in the greater Sacramento area for 9 years, performing at just about any event you can name — anniversaries, birthdays, weddings, memorial services, marriage proposals, graduations, graduation ceremonies, River Cats games, parties, parades, Sacramento Jazz Jubilee, schools, Capitolaire shows and more. We have a blast, and the right song, no matter what the occasion. We thank our families for allowing us to participate in this fantastic hobby that has allowed us to know so many wonderful people. Rosye Salz (tenor) Don Salz (lead) Steve Allison (baritone) and Eric Reininga (bass).

Featured Performers

The Davis High Madrigal Singers was founded in 1966 and are an auditioned group of 32 high school students from Davis, California, who perform a wide variety of music dating from the 15th century to the present. In their distinctive, Renaissance-inspired costumes, the chamber choir currently enjoys about 40 performances per year within the United States and abroad. This highly accomplished class, within the CA public school system, demands the best of these young musicians' talents and they have had the pleasure of working with many renowned U.S. and International musicians. Some of the Madrigals' most treasured experiences, however, have been through community outreach. From the time-honored tradition of The Madrigal Dinner, a 16th Century holiday feast, to the preparing and serving of meals at The Wayfarer Center and many choral workshops and benefit concerts in between, the Madrigals are committed to their "musical message of joy and hope" through song and service. Today, we welcome a hand-picked octet from this highly entertaining group.

Anticipation is lucky enough to combine barbershop music with family—baritone Cheri Jump, formerly of the Sweet Adelines International medalist quartet Razzcals, is the sister of tenor Kim Eckert and mom of lead Nikki Gloudeman. While bass

Courtney Anderson isn't technically family, she's become like an adopted family member, too. All four members are "barbershop brats," having grown up with barbershop. Courtney's dad, Brent Anderson, has been a member in the men's barbershop society since 1975, and mom/grandma Joan Eckert will celebrate 50 years as a Sweet Adeline next year. After just a couple months singing together, the quartet made a splash at the Sweet Adelines regional competition in Reno, winning third place medals. Anticipation is excited and grateful to sing on this show, and is anticipating more great barbershop experiences ahead!
